HUNT FOR A HOME MUST BESANITARY

to Provide New Quarters After January 1.

The question of providing quarters for the School Board, which will have to vacate the present location in the City Hall to make room for the Administrative Board, was threshed out at length last night before the Council Committee on Grounds and Buildings. As the net result of the discussion, the committee voted to make a tour of inspection among the public buildings of the city at 1 o'clock next Monday afternoon for the purpose of fixing upon a suitable home.

Superintendent J. A. C. Chandler urged that the committee act in time to secure the necessary appropriation from the Council before the Administrative Board takes office on January 1. He suggested an appropriation of $6,000 with which to remodel quarters in the John Smith School, which, he thought, could be made to provide a good central location. Councilman Umlanf shjetched to voting for an appro-

May Remodel John Smith School State Board of Health Will Enforce Regulations for Safety of Children.

> To centre fire on the schools of the State and to make a careful study of the sanitary condition of schools is a part of the winter's work of the State Board of Health, as outlined yesterday by the executive officers of the board.

Chief among the problems to be considered is the provision of ample sanitary outbuildings for all public schools, Statistics show that in many counties comparatively a small percentage of the public schools of the State are provided with any form of outbuildings and that in some instances those pro-vided are well calculated to spread disease among the school children.

Acting on authority given it by the General Assembly, the State Board of the John Smith School, which, he thought, could be made to provide a good central location. Councilman Umlauf objected to voting for an appropriation of this size without a look at the proposed quarters, and the matter was deferred until after Monday's inspection.

An amendment to Mr. Umlauf's motion for a tour of inspection was adopted directing that the committee at the same time make a round of the same time make a round of the city parks with the view of examining into their immediate needs. No Virginia Official Allowed to Grateful Sufferer Meets News of Sympathetic Response With Tears of Joy.

Responding to an appeal in behalf of an Australian woman who is dying of tuberculosis, the people of Rich-mond yesterday subscribed more than by the United States government to make a study of the schools of Switzerland. He has, therefore, notified Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, that he is obliged to decline.

The law on the subject is very sweeping in prohibiting acceptance by any officer in this State of any post under the Federal government, the thorn, trust or emolument. It had been proposed to pay only Mr. Eggleston's traveling expenses, so the mission would have no real emolument, but it is unquestionably one of trust and honor.

It seems, therefore, acceptance of the mission in Switzerland would have vacated Mr. Eggleston's office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.
